

AHA! TO INTRODUCE NEW MASCOT NEXT WEEK

May 26, 2010

LANCASTER -- On June 1, AHA! A Hands-on Adventure, A Children's Museum will introduce their new mascot, Handy.

Children who come to AHA! will be encouraged each week to find an 8-inch Handy doll, which will be hidden in a new hiding place each week. Children who find Handy will then be entered into a weekly, monthly and summer-long drawing.

Children can come back to AHA! week after week at an admission price of $5 per person for all ages. Special rates also will be offered to day care centers and summer camps on Tuesdays, Wednesdays or Thursdays.

AHA! is located at 315 S. Broad St. in Lancaster and is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Saturday.
